

Justice, Equity, Diversity & Inclusion (JEDI) Training

An introduction to anti-oppressive teaching

Facilitated by
Ashley E. Cureton, Ph.D., MSW
*Assistant Professor,
University of Michigan - Ann Arbor,
School of Social Work & School of Education*

Session 1:

Discussing Identity, Power & Privilege

Tuesday, September 20 | 10-11:30AM & 1-2:30 PM ET

This workshop explores how intersectional identities are linked to power and privilege at individual, interpersonal, and institutional levels. Participants will be introduced to the purpose and structure of the diversity statement.

Session 2:

Understanding the Impact of Oppression in the U.S.

Thursday, September 22 | 10-11:30AM & 1-2:30 PM ET

This workshop unpacks the historical context and ways in which racism, White supremacy, and other forms of discrimination operate in the U.S. Participants will review and discuss sample diversity statements from recent JHU alumni/networks.

Facilitated by
Megumi G. Hine, MS
*Doctoral Candidate, Johns
Hopkins University School of Education, Center for the Social Organization of Schools*

Facilitated by
Lester J. Kern III, MSW
*Doctoral Candidate & Lecturer,
University of Chicago Crown Family
School of Social Work, Policy & Practice*

Session 3:

Creating an Inclusive Learning Environment

Tuesday, September 27 | 10-11:30AM ET & 1-2:30 PM ET

This workshop brainstorms strategies and resources for fostering an inclusive classroom through both subject matter and teaching methods. Participants will develop concrete outlines for their own diversity statement.

Session 4:

Becoming a JEDI Accomplice

Thursday, September 29 | 10-11:30AM ET & 1-2:30 PM ET

This workshop identifies opportunities and strategies for instructors to act as an accomplice in classroom and individual contexts with students. Participants will have the opportunity to receive feedback on their drafted diversity statements.

Facilitated by
Ashley E. Cureton, Ph.D., MSW
Assistant Professor, University of Michigan - Ann Arbor, School of Social Work & School of Education

The morning and afternoon sessions will cover different aspects of each topic and participants should plan to attend both session times. Full participation is strongly encouraged but not required.

Register Here

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/jedi-training-an-introduction-to-anti-oppressive-teaching-tickets-392642051947>