From Academia to Industry: Life of a PDT Quantitative Researcher

Tuesday, October 18th at 6pm ET

Please join our virtual discussion with PDT Researchers, to learn about their journey to quantitative finance from academia.

Hear how a team of scientists, mathematicians, and engineers with PhDs in Physics, Computer Science, Math, Statistics, and Electrical Engineering develop trading strategies using uniquely scientifically rigorous approaches in an open and collaborative culture.

We hope to see you at our interactive panel discussion. Please register here:
